9/11 Day of Unity: September 14
Emory Cares Day: November 9
Emory’s Day On: January 20
World Read Aloud Day: March 5
Discussion on Conflict Resolution
featuring monologues of those affected by the attacks
Tuesday, September 10
7:00 PM
Brooks Commons (beneath Cannon Chapel)

Candlelight Vigil
immediately following the discussion
Tuesday, September 10
8:15 PM
The Quad

Day of Service
Saturday, September 14*

Check-In: 8:00 AM
Coke Commons in the DUC
Service: 10:00 AM – 1:30 PM
Across Atlanta
*There will be one project on Sunday, September 15 for students celebrating Yom Kippur.

Please register at volunteer.emory.edu

Contact volunteeremory@gmail.com or (404) 727 - 6269 for any questions, comments, and concerns.
Saturday, November 9
Emory’s largest day of service
For Emory alumni, students, staff, faculty and administration
Project Lead applications open NOW!
Emory’s Day On
Monday, January 20, 2013

Organized as part of Emory's annual King Week activities, volunteers honor Dr. King's commitment to service by engaging in meaningful community work at various nonprofit agencies in Atlanta.

More event details and registration information are forthcoming.

Project Lead Applications open in November.